RECORD WARM WEATHER BLASTS HOPE FOR RAIN

HURRICANE LASHES COAST

(By United Press)

The storm king ruled the Atlantic and a part of western Europe Thursday, taking life, damaging property and adding new episodes to the story of the sea. Five known deaths were reported with a possibility that 16 others also perished.

As if his efforts were not enough, dispatches told of an earthquake in Bulgaria, a falling meteorite in England, and a dramatic ship crew rescue in Samoa.

Wind ranging from 50 to 100 miles an hour whipped the eastern Atlantic, the British Isles and the English channel, imperiling shipping, shaking down houses and disrupting communications.

Seven steamships were in difficulty, and one, the Frances Duncan, was given up as lost after only five of its crew of 21 had been rescued. Five other persons were known to have been killed in Great Britain, three drowning in a fishing boat.

The Italian steamer Vesuvio called for assistance near Corsica in the Mediterranean.

Towns were flooded and many persons rescued in boats as floods swept parts of Spain.

Three fishing vessels were still missing from St. Johns, Newfoundland, after a week-end hurricane. The liner Republic of the United States lines saved the captain and ten men of the schooner Gardner Dean, which foundered 150 miles southeast of St. Johns. Capt. A. M. Moore wireless that the Gardner Dean was a "derelict."

The rescue ship Melge reported to St. Johns it was towing the crippled schooner Effie May to port. The Effie May 24 hours earlier had sighted the Merry Widow, in distress with its bowsprit gone. The Northern Light was still to be heard from. The Jean Blackwood was reported making its way to port.

The master of the steamer Thronate reported to Lloyds that 11 of the crew of the freighter Norwich City were drowned when the ship struck a treacherous reef of Gardner Island, 700 miles north of Pago Pago, Samoa. Three men were taken aboard the Thronate and 24 others were removed to land through the courage of the crew of the motor launch Lincoln and native boatmen.

4 DIE, 35 HURT IN P.O. BLAST

MUNHALL, Pa., Dec. 5.—UP.—Four persons were killed and at least 35 injured today when an explosion shattered the Munhall postoffice—a little two-story frame building. The blast was caused, it is believed, by leaking gas.

At the Homestead hospital, where the injured were taken, the number of persons hurt in the explosion was set at 35.

The little lobby of the postoffice was crowded with men, women and children when the explosion occurred during the noon hour. The blast damaged a street car which was passing in front of the building and caused damage to buildings throughout the town. The detonation was heard for miles around.

Two hundred workmen from the Munhall Steel Works were called to the scene and began digging for bodies.

Ten passengers on the street car passing in front of the building, were among the injured. The car was badly damaged.

Thousands of persons from nearby towns were attracted to the scene. Police and physicians from neighboring towns also responded.

RAIN FALLS AT SEATTLE; SHORTAGE OF POWER SEEN

SEATTLE, Dec. 5.—(U.P.)—Seattle was "singing in the rain" today while hydro-electric generators were humming with renewed hope.

A band came out and serenaded newspaper offices and Mayor Frank Edwards, but beneath the notes of optimism was fear that showers which visited the Puget Sound region, would be insufficient to give material relief from the drought which has brought the power shortage.

The city of Tacoma continued efforts to get the great airplane carrier Lexington to generate power, and partly suspended operation of its street cars.

Aid Asked
And the city of Seattle continued to refuse to meet stipulations from the navy department for an administrator with authority to handle the combined output of the systems of the two cities and of the privately owned Puget Sound Light and Power company of Seattle.

Seattle, through Mayor Edwards, declared willingness to help Tacoma in the crisis, but wanted it clearly understood that the situation is not as serious here as in the Southern Puget Sound city, an attitude that caused him to refuse approval of a memorial resolution addressed by the city council to President Hoover asking aid of the Lexington.

However, many nights in Seattle have been extinguished. The council in the resolution, forecast a "black Christmas" with industries shut down and advertising lights extinguished unless relief was obtained.

Carrier Asked
Seattle labor representatives today joined with Tacoma in urging assignment of the Lexington to the task of generating electricity.

"A lack of rain has caused a water shortage and shortage in hydro-electric power, which if not relieved immediately will cause a shutdown in many industries and tremendous loss to industry and workers," Dave Beck of the local Teamsters union said in a telegram to William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, urging Green to support the request.

In Tacoma, street car service on the municipal line was suspended except during the peak hours and the traffic handled by buses.

CARGO BROUGHT FROM INDIA

Two Nelson intercoastal steamers will arrive at the local harbor today. The Griffith will load a cargo for northern coast points at the inner harbor while the Caddopeak will arrive at the outer harbor to load a cargo for Seattle.

Carrying a general cargo, the Nelson liner Castletown will arrive here Dec. 12.

The graduates will receive their diplomas from Aubrey Wilson, president of the Richmond Union high school board. The invocation will be given by Rev. Kenneth B. Wallace, pastor of the First Baptist church. The list of the graduates to the school will be presented by Claude Ford, president of the senior class. An appropriate program will be presented by the graduating class preceding the graduation ceremonies.

Child Beater Back In Preston

MARTINEZ, Dec. 5.—Karl Parks, 17, was today taken back to lone to serve out his San Joaquin county term in the Preston school of industry, upon revocation of his parole.

The revocation was made by Justice of the Peace F. L. Glass, when Parks appeared before him today on charges of beating his three year old cousin, Clyde, advised Lindbergh of the search's end.

Col. Lindbergh, who returned a close friend of Nelson, returned to Cleveland airport an hour or two after the finding of the body. Radio to his plane had advised Lindbergh of the search's end.

44 ERRORS CHARGED AS FLEAGLE SEEKS NEW TRIAL

LAMAR, Colo., Dec. 5.—Motion for a new trial for Ralph Fleagle, sentenced to hang for the murder of President A. N. Parrish, Lamar banker, was before the district court here today.

Forty-four errors in the trial of the Fleagle case were alleged by Fleagle's attorneys in the new move, ranging from perjury on the part of a juror to unfair rulings by Judge A. F. Holbeck, trial judge.

These affidavits by residents of Norton county, Kansas, are attached to the motion for a new trial. One of the affidavits and the most important is signed by County Attorney W. E. Mahlin. It supports the allegation that Juror A. S. Carroll misinterpreted his opinion while being questioned as to his qualifications to sit on the trial of Ralph Fleagle.

Mahlin, in the affidavit, said he jury disregarded the alleged agreement and sentenced Fleagle to death.

U. S. Office Wrecked By Communists

WARSAW, Poland, Dec. 5.—(U.P.)—Communists stoned and smashed windows of the United States consulate general here tonight in protesting against America's Kellogg pact reminder to Soviet Russia.

Police dispersed one group, arresting three, but the Communists gathered again before the consulate general, firing shots and throwing stones. No one was hurt. The consular staff had left for the day.

Other Communist demonstrations were held before the government building and the prison.

LINDY BUDDY FOUND DEAD

CLEVELAND, O., Dec. 5.—UP.—While more than a score of airplanes, including one piloted by Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, were winging over the Ohio countryside today in a search, a rabbit hunter today came upon the body of Thomas P. Nelson and the twisted wreckage of the mail plane that bore him to death.

The mail plane—a 1927 that was left of it—had crashed in a wooded ravine near Chagrin Falls, 25 miles east of here. The ravine was but a short distance from a heavy revealed highway between Chagrin Falls and Warren.

Col. Lindbergh, who returned a close friend of Nelson, returned to Cleveland airport an hour or two after the finding of the body. Radio to his plane had advised Lindbergh of the search's end.

SLAYER BLAMES GIRL FOR ACT

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 5.—UP.—Armando Boltares, a 24 year old Mexican truck driver who confessed killing five members of one family, turned on his 31 year old sweetheart today and told deputy sheriffs that she had urged him to commit the crimes.

He said that the woman, Dolores Gulchapa, had lost her nerve after Mrs. Helene Alvarez Garcia and her three children, Carlos Alvarez, 18 and Carmelita and Eliza Alvarez, 12 and 6, had been slain.

Miss Gulchapa forced him to flee from Bootleggers' canyon before the headless body of the boy, which led to discovery of the crimes, was buried. Later, he admitted he killed Luciano Garcia, the stepfather, near Azusa, changing today to say that the crime was motivated by Miss Gulchapa's suspicion that the Garcia's had had her bootlegging establishment raided.

Russia Blames U.S. For Pact Muddle

RELIEF NOT IN SIGHT REPORT

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 5.—UP.—Thousands of central Californians cheered early this week by predictions of heavy rain to end a drought of more than four months, experienced new discomforts today from the hottest December day since 1871.

The weather bureau reported that the thermometers here read 74 at 3 p. m., or two degrees higher than they were on Dec. 5, 1927, when the previous high mark was set.

While parched lands continued to furnish great worry and distressed residents of the cities perspired under the hot sun, the Weather Bureau said it could hardly expect rain for two or three days at least.

Storm Veers
At the same time officials of the Bureau said that the storm which was approaching California Monday and Tuesday had apparently veered off its course and would not reach this region.

Rain fell for a brief time in the Sacramento valley Wednesday and it was believed the disturbance over the Pacific ocean had moved faster than expected. Experts of the United States Weather Bureau said rain might be general over central California tonight.

Instead the sky was cloudless, giving way completely to the hot rays of a bright sun. Soda fountains had a surprise as their small winter staffs were rushed to care for thirsty patrons.

The menace of forest fires became greater than ever. Less than one-hundredth of an inch of rain has fallen here since July and grass had singed rapidly.

Grazing lands were barren and livestock was suffering from lack of water. Farmers were alarmed by visions of crop failures. Growth had been retarded by the long dry spell.

Church leaders asked that prayers for rain be renewed and continued until the drought is definitely ended.

So far there has not been a curtailment of power although a number of steam generating plants have been started to generate power.

Curfew Ruling Will Be Probed By W.C.T.U.

"Curfew did not ring last night and why not, inquired the Point Richmond W. C. T. U. at its meeting at the home of Mrs. James C. Bly of 500 Golden Gate avenue yesterday afternoon.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union, in addition to its prohibition activities, has decided to enter the lists of "early to bed, early to rise" advocates, and inquire into the reason why the Richmond curfew bell is not rung each night.

"We understand," stated Mrs. Bly, "that Richmond has a curfew bell which should be rung each night to keep the younger children off the streets, and our organization has decided to inquire as to why this is not done."

The Christmas boxes, which each year are sent to the sick soldiers in the hospitals, were made at yesterday's meeting.

Following the business session, Mrs. Bly, assisted by Mrs. Paul Dunlap, president of the organization, served refreshments to the members.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—UP.—The House set a new record today by passing within three hours and twenty minutes the $160,000,000 tax reduction resolution that will knock one percent off income taxes of individuals and corporations to be paid next year.

Under the resolution, present normal tax rates will be reduced from 1-1/2 three and five to one two and four percent, and the corporation rate from 12 to 11 percent. The reduction will amount to $90,000,000 in corporate taxes and $70,000,000 in individual taxes, according to Treasury estimates.

The resolution was sent to the Senate, where it will be taken up in a few days. There appears no doubt the measure will be passed by the Senate before Christmas.

SOLUTION OF RAIL ROW SOUGHT

By UNITED PRESS

Russia and Manchuria still groped for a solution of the Chinese-Eastern railway dispute today, while Moscow newspapers, referred to Secretary of State Henry L. Stimson's Kellogg pact reminder as an "attempt at large scale blackmail."

After Russia had announced the signing of a protocol settling the dispute, the Manchurian government decided to send its peace delegate to demand a revision.

In Moscow the protocol was interpreted as binding with the statement that if Manchuria failed to confirm it the Soviets should hold America "interference" responsible.

Communists in Warsaw, Poland fired shots and smashed windows of the U. S. consulate, in protest against Stimson's move.

MOSCOW TO ASK REVISION
MUKDEN, Manchuria, Dec. 5.—UP.—Gov. Chang Hsueh-Liang decided today to inform Russia that the agreement reached at Nikolayevskskirsk must be revised to permit China to retain President Lu Jung-Huan of the Chinese Eastern railway in some capacity as a railroad official.

MOSCOW, Dec. 5.—UP.—Factory workers in Moscow, Leningrad, Rostov and other places indignantly passed resolutions today scoring Secretary of State Stimson of the United States, Foreign Secretary Arthur Henderson of Great Britain and others who reminded Russia of its Kellogg pact obligations.

The all Soviet parliament unanimously approved the outline of foreign policy submitted to it Wednesday night by Maxim Litvinoff, acting commissar of foreign affairs. In the outline, Litvinoff accused the United States and Great Britain of interference designed to block the Mukden-Moscow parity.

BABY BORN TO PRISON INMATE
SAN RAFAEL, Dec. 5.—UP.—A girl was born to an inmate of San Quentin state prison here today after great concern by California authorities.

By special provisions of high officials, Evelyn Victoria Leano was born in the cottage hospital of San Rafael instead of the penitentiary.

Mrs. Frances Culy Leano of Pasadena is mother of the 8-1-1 pound girl.

She had started serving a sentence of from two to five years for assisting in an illegal operation when the warden learned she was an expectant mother. Only once before had such a problem been presented and in that case the mother was temporarily released.

THE WOMAN OF IT

Spruce Pillow Dreams—Though Winter Comes

EVERY woman knows how some little thing—a flower, an old letter, a baby's shoe—sets her dreaming.

Of what is beautiful and beloved and lost long ago.

It's "the woman of it" that dreams will come.

No matter how busy and practical and, on the whole, satisfactory real life may be.

The thing that has just set her dreaming is, appropriately enough, a pillow.

Only it is the sort of pillow not so often found in New York.

A spruce pillow has been brought to us from Maine by Foxie of the brown eyes.

Who loves the life of the woodland as well as does the swift, bright-glancing creature from which she takes her pet name.

It is a pillow packed with the spicy, concentrated essence of blue-and-gold days in sun-warmed evergreen forests.

And with every breath we draw from the spruce pillow is drawn a dream.

Of a world away from skyscrapers and stock markets and subways.

Away from stuffy smoky offices and snugly wuffy suburbs.

At a picturesque, remote, to a suburban woman who knows what real country is like.

The most fascinating is that fabulous observation, "You live in the country, don't you?"

When the observer is referring to a collection of bogus Colonial and Queen Anne houses, set in lawns shaven even of their dandelions.

With no neighbors before, behind, on every side. As neat and stylishly decorated.

As the austere, barren, "improved" landscape in which they dwell.

This the country? By hillside pasture, holly granite boulders, half juniper bushes.

By yards where grass grows long and dandelions and blueets and clover grow with it.

By a horizon with pines wherever you look—not.

Here is such stuff as spruce pillow dreams are made of.

This true country, where always in the wind is the savor of pines.

Must-tell and blackly green; beneath them.

The softest of brown carpets, cool in the shadows.

Pink lady's slippers, the torch of the scarlet wood-lily, shivering anemones.

Fine white gold-throated, scar-tongued, false Solomon's seal.

The ghostly Indian pipes, cold, with blackened edges.

The red-fruited pattern of partridge berry—all wait in the pinewoods.

Outside them are soft country roads on each side a tangle.

Of crimson sunnocks and scented sweet fern and ox-eye daisies.

Or wild rose with heart-shaped petals, of purple trout-flowers later.

And down near the brook wild geranium's pink, with orange jewel-seed.

Where the brook runs into the meadow are tawny meadow lilies.

Pale orchids, blue flag, rosy sheep laurel, pitcher plants there are.

And—if yours is the fortunate country—in August the lance.

Of cardinal flower, redder than redness.

In September, fringed gentian, bluer than ocean of sky.

So they haunt the country-bred woman, these spruce pillow dreams.

Of a land of real trees, real wild flowers, unsmudged by cities—

Even though winter comes on the winds of November.

Even at our autumn beach, lovely and will and alone.

Where flowers bloom in the sunsets, a sapphire and turquoise water.

Where we linger, avid of the peace, the cooling salt air.

Even with only the sound of striding surf in our ears—

With sunlight and color and clear horizons spread like a harvest feast.

Even with this beauty for bread, but with cheek on a spruce pillow.

We dream of New England countryside, pure-sweet, flower-bright.

And if you are a woman who has ever cherished her own dream.

Of the Far Away and the Long Ago—You'll forgive us for once dreaming aloud.

REFLECTIONS TO ESTHER

Will you remember bridges, moonlight-spattered.

And the pale star, reflected in the foam.

We saw together when but, one thing mattered—

THEY'RE BUILDING 'EM HIGHER

SCENE: Office of a New York multi-millionaire. Time: Any time this year.

MILLIONAIRE (to friend)—Wait a minute till I call up my architect for the latest quotations. (Takes up telephone.) Central, get me Van Dyke 9412. Hello, is this Deakins & Tripp, the architects? ... This is Mr. Smiley.

VOICE—How are you, Mr. Smiley?

MILLIONAIRE—Say, what are the latest quotations on tall office buildings?

VOICE—Well, Chrysler Building closed at 988½ feet above the sidewalk last night. Bank of Manhattan Building moved up five feet for a new high at 973. And Woolworth Building was 792 feet, representing no gain.

MILLIONAIRE—Are there any other new issues you've heard about?

VOICE—Well, that Empire State Building that Al Smith is going to be boss of will be dedicated on the Fifth Avenue curb in 1931. It's going to have a high of 1,100 feet.

MILLIONAIRE—Well, listen, my dear architect. I want you to build me a skyscraper right away that will top all those boys. Can you get it started immediately?

VOICE—Yes, sir, Mr. Smiley. About how high do you want to go?

MILLIONAIRE—Oh, 1,300 or 1,400 feet. I want to have at least 100 stories. Understand? I'm not going to have any of the neighbors peering into my and home from the roof.

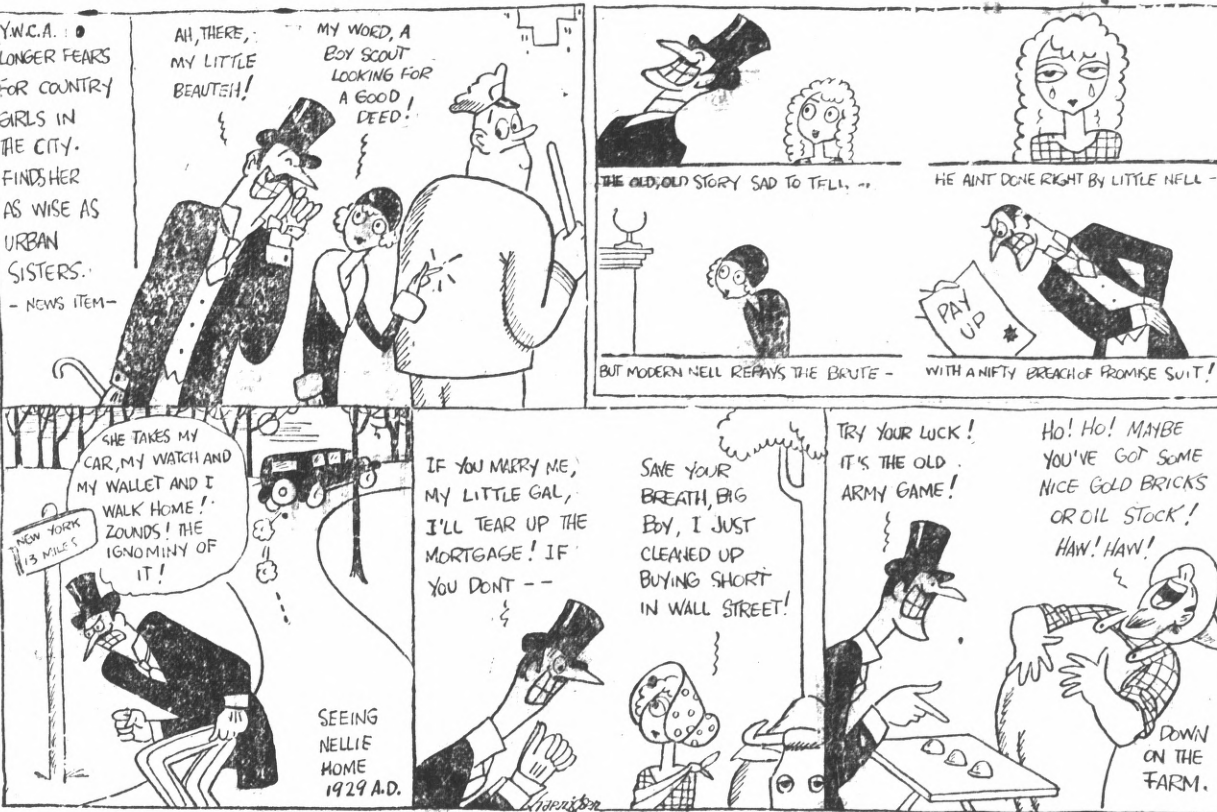

VOICE—Yes, sir, Mr. Smiley. I'll put you down for a 105-story building, about 1,400 feet high, for delivery in the spring of 1931.

MILLIONAIRE—Thanks.

And that is the reason New York is suffering from growing pains again. Everybody with $20,000,000 or $30,000,000 in change is putting up what he thinks is the world's tallest building. They are sprouting up all over Manhattan's sky like Kansas wheat in June.

Expert Morticians

So perfect were the embalming processes of the Egyptians of the time of Moses that it has been possible for the heart of a Pharaoh who died thousands of years before Christ to be examined now by Lord Moynehan of the Royal College of Surgeons. This famous surgeon has proved definitely that the Egyptian ruler suffered from the same type of heart disease which afflicted the first Napoleon in the later years of his life. A large vessel springing from the Pharaoh's heart was in so well preserved a state that another member of the Royal College of Surgeons has been able to make "a section" of it and then to compare this with a section from a man who died recently. The two sections were shown side by side on a lantern slide and no pathologist could tell which was the ancient and which the modern vessel. Both Pharaoh and Napoleon were attacked by the disease known as atheroma, a condition in which calcium salts are deposited in the walls of the vessel, making it rigid and inelastic.

Immortal Italians

Celebration of the seventh anniversary of the Fascist march on Rome was marked with the official inauguration of the Italian Academy, which will eventually have sixty "immortal" members, or twenty more than the full membership of the French Academy. The Academy is divided into four classes of members, fifteen for each class, who are eminent in any of the following four branches: History and moral science, literature, the arts and natural science, physics and mathematics.

There will be a President, four Vice Presidents, one at the head of each class; a General Secretary and a Treasurer. These members will form the Academic Council and will remain in office for five years. The Academy will hold regular sittings to discuss and promote the general interests of art, natural science and letters. It will grant research subsidies, traveling scholarships and will contribute toward the completion of scientific, literary and artistic works. It will in some cases assign pensions to authors, artists and scientists and to their dependents. The Academy will be housed in the beautiful Renaissance palace, La Farnesina, and will receive an annual subsidy from the state.

Timely Shopping Hints

AT ONE of the bargain tables a woman was buying a pair of silk stockings. She made her selection in haste and, apparently, the price she paid was considerably less than she was in the habit of paying. In reply to the inquiry of her astonished companion she laughingly said, "Oh, they are not for myself. They are just a Christmas gift."

On the next counter was neckwear and two fashionably dressed girls attracted my attention and I overheard, "Why don't you take that collar, Dot? It is so much prettier than this one and well worth the difference in price." "I would if it was for myself but it is a Christmas present so it makes no difference," replied the young lady addressed.

At the handkerchief counter a woman was giving an order and this is what she said: "Please send me two dozen ladies' handkerchiefs, something for a quarter apiece. I am giving handkerchiefs to my friends this year. They solve the problem so easily. No, I am not particular about the selection. Send me anything; they are not for myself, you know."

The attitude in Christmas giving explains the accumulation of impossible gifts so many of us have on hand. These shoppers, like so many thousands others, were performing a duty. It never occurred to them that the inferior quality of the article would mean disappointment to the recipient. Perhaps they were indifferent about that, too.

It is far better to give no present at all than give in such a spirit—I wonder whether such givers ever think such a gift may be considered an insult.

Large Earrings and Choker Emphasize a Short Neck

By Marguerite Barnes

WITH the return of more feminine styles, the wide, very long, old-fashioned earrings are being worn again. These earrings tend to widen and shorten the neck and face, and should only be worn by the tall woman. The effect on the short-necked woman is illustrated by the marching earrings and necklace used in Figures 1 and 2. Figure 3 shows the narrow pendant earrings, not so long, which can be worn by this type of woman. Choker necklaces have the same effect, the long necklace with its vertical line being more becoming.

The Farmer's Advice

By Alfalfa Smith

THE young lady I am going to tell you about was neatness in itself. Every morning when the boss came in her desk was cleared and the discarded envelopes were all nicely reposed in the waste basket.

The boss would come in at 10 o'clock and look around. There was not much business, he thought to himself.

Finally the young lady wanted a raise in salary, as some young ladies do, but she didn't get it. Then she confided in a newspaper man and he told her the truth—her desk was too clean—there were no envelopes on the floor.

The next morning when the boss arrived the floor around the young lady's desk was filled with envelopes and her desk was a mess.

"Ah!" cried the boss. "Now we are commencing to make some money."

The end of the month did not show a great increase in income, but the good man thought he was doing a lot of business and so he raised the young lady's salary.

Aren't men funny?

On Being Individual

VERY ONE in the restaurant was looking at her—she wore a great yellow diamond on her thumb.

If it was attention she got it. But if it was admiration she wanted—and we suggest it was—most of her neighbor diners dismissed her as a nut. She might just as well have entered that restaurant with a ring in her nose or a blue stocking and a pink one for all the good the thumb decoration got her.

Human enough is the revolt of some of us against standardization. Who wants to look like a mass product? But this business of trying to be individual is beset with hazards for worse.

We all know some one who strives so hard to be "different" that she succeeds merely in being ridiculous.

Perhaps the trouble lies in the striving. It would appear that way, at any rate. The few people we know who are delightfully individual—that is, unaffectionately individual—don't strive to be anything except themselves. Even then they don't strive. They just natur "be, that's all."

They don't go way, way out of their way to wear clothes that nobody else is wearing or would wear. They are a la mode but primarily with an eye to what suits them best. And that insistence on fitness, becomingness, explains why they do manage to be a shade or two different from the mob.

After all, we are each of us, different, naturally. As different as the leaves on trees or the snowflakes that drift down from heaven. And fond, we each of us have a different picture of ourselves, different habits, tastes and looks. And all those natural differences combined should go to make us quite nicely individual.

But it isn't. Rarely. For most people want to be radically other than they are, or radically like other people. Jessica uses Miriam's garters and Miriam "cheerfully" copies Mary's clothes and Mary wastes hours practicing Marcelina's accent. And then she comes Ruth, so willy of all the copying and the standardizing that she goes mad completely and breaks out into eczema. For she was one during the Golden Age of Pericles.

Yet these ruthless Ruths know perfectly well that two women can wear the identical same hat and by some miracle of nature individuality make it look like two decidedly different hats. Proving that it is not at all necessary to be bizarre in order to be different. All that we need is to be just our sincerest, loveliest selves.

And so more power to ourselves, ourselves and their selves!

Black Fur Is Chic

IN a season when black bespeaks smartness, the fur coat further emphasizes the importance of black. For an informal fur coat immaculately tailored, slim of shoulder and feminine without, black lapin stars. The enlarged Johnny collar frames the face, and the slight flare at the hemline replaces the straight line of the former, lined fur coats. Kasha lining in a beige tone is newer than silk, although many women prefer silk with fur.

Have You Ever Heard—

To tie a paper bag over the chaper when grinding stale bread will prevent scattering?

That lemon juice will do nicely to polish your black or brown shoes in case the regular polish has run out?

It would be easier to divide the shelves into compartments and label these instead of labeling every container of preserves each year?

CA DISH CA DAY

By Nancy Dorris

Copyright Press Publishing Company (New York World) 1929

Happily, all days are now salad days. Once or twice a day the salad appears to lend its refreshing quality and sprightliness to the menu.

Even in November the salad retains its sprightly character and its versatility. Vegetables crisp and brightly colored combine to form novel effects, or cooked and fresh raw vegetables blend in the salad bowl at dinner. Sometimes the presence of some tart fruit changes the effect.

The red cabbage is a wonder worker for the salad maker. Being one of the richest in coloring of the fall or early winter vegetables, it is useful as well as healthful. Combined with other vegetables, or with pineapple, its crisp goodness is well worth utilizing.

Just before Thanksgiving when a quick salad is desired for dinner the busy housewife will like

RED CABBAGE SALAD

One bunch watercress
Two cups shredded red cabbage
Six leaves of chicory
Four tablespoons olive oil
Two tablespoons beet vinegar
Seasoning if necessary

Servings: Six

The vinegar drained from pickled beets varies the usual French dressing for vegetable salads. Particularly does it pick up the combination of red cabbage, chicory and chervil. It should be seasoned to taste, however, before mixing it with the oil. A sprinkle of sugar adds much to the success of the dressing.

Thorough chilling and crispness of the salad materials is essential and bags or glass-covered dishes for them should be at hand. When the dress-chicory and red cabbage come from the market, they may be treated to a bath in lukewarm water and then allowed to stay in fresh water half an hour at least. Drained, placed in bags or refrigerator containers, they rate a place near the ice or cooling chamber. Here they become very cold and crisp.

Just before serving the cabbage should be shredded or sliced very fine with a sharp knife; the chicory pulled apart with the fingers and cross separated into sprigs. Arrange lightly in the chilled salad bowl and pour over the oil. Mix lightly with spoon and fork and when the vegetables have absorbed the oil, add the beet vinegar and toss lightly.

Serve from the salad bowl upon chilled plates.

Other combinations with red cabbage include thin rings of Spanish onion and celery dice dressed with a lemon French dressing, green pepper rings and cucumber circles dressed with onion French dressing; or a combination in the proportion of one-half cup shredded cabbage, one-half cup shredded lettuce, one-half cup diced celery, two tablespoons onion rings and two tablespoons minced parsley dressed with beet vinegar and oil.

When fruit is desired wedges of canned pineapple, a few blanched almonds or pecans combine beautifully with the crisp red cabbage, a straight French dressing blending the materials. Grapefruit, apple and grapes are also friendly to the brilliant cabbage, a

XMAS MARKET OPENED BY CHURCH GROUP

The first day of a two-day Christmas market, sponsored by the women of the Stege Presbyterian church, was held yesterday at 1016 Macdonald avenue.

Reports from Mrs. D. G. McGrew, chairman of the affair, indicate a remarkable success for the first day.

In addition to the sale of fancy work and home cooked foods, Mrs. McGrew has discovered a novel way of cooking spaghetti, which is served by Mrs. A. Thompson, and women of the church.

The spaghetti, according to Mrs. McGrew, is not of the Italian style, but is an import from Louisiana, and is cooked in the real old southern style.

Many beautiful articles are on sale at the fancy work booth, which would make admirable Christmas presents. Today will be the last day of the bazaar, the booths opening at 10 o'clock in the morning and closing at 9 o'clock tonight.

Mrs. Matthew Weir has charge of the fancy work booth, Mrs. D. A. Dodge of the cooked foods, Mrs. Anna Hunt white elephant counter, and Mrs. W. J. McCarthy and Mrs. McGrew are selling candy.

JOAN BENNETT TAKES LEAD AT 17

Personality, plus confidence and stage experience form the key to success in talking pictures, according to Joan Bennett, beautiful young stage actress in "Three Live Ghosts." United Artists' all talking comedy drama, which is now the feature attraction at the Fox-California theater.

"Three Live Ghosts" is based on the famous comedy drama success of the New York and London stage. Directed by Thornton Freeland, the picture features an all star cast, including Beryl Mercer, Charles McNaughton, C. A. Hunter, Robert Montgomery, Hilary Vaughn, Joan Bennett, Shavie Gardner, Harry Stubbs, Jack Cooper, Jocelyn Lee, Nancy Price and Tenen Holtz.

Miss Bennett, who is but 19, literally stepped from the classroom of a finishing school in "Three Live Ghosts" to the stage in "Three Live Ghosts." When taking pictures became an established fact and thus revolutionized motion picture making, Miss Bennett, having completed her New York stage engagement, came to Hollywood to appear in "Three Live Ghosts."

Miss Bennett's role of a young English girl reunited with her American sweetheart, whom she believed had been killed in action, provides her with ample opportunity to display her versatility and charm.

Also on the program is a talking comedy, "The Golfers" and Fox talking News.

Fall's Actions Scored At L. A. Oil Land Trial

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 5.—UP—Oil leases valued at $15,000,000 were executed in favor of E. L. Doheny's Pan-American oil company at the direction of then Secretary of the Interior Albert E. Fall, without advertising or opportunity for competitive bidding. It was testified today at the hearing in the government's attempt to cancel the leases.

The testimony was given in Federal court by E. O. Finney, who was first assistant secretary under Fall.

"I prepared the leases at the direction of Secretary Fall," Finney explained under questioning by former Senator Alton C. Parker, government prosecutor of oil cases.

"And isn't it true that there was not any advertising made or opportunity afforded for competitive bidding?" Pomeroy inquired.

"That is true," Finney replied. "No one bid with the exception of the company to whom they were made."

The government contends that the leases, which are in the Elk Hills reserve in Kern county, California, resulted from an unlawful conspiracy between Fall and Doheny. The government has introduced evidence purporting to show that Secretary Fall disregarded advice of experts in granting the leases.

Italian Ruler Visits Pope

ROME, Dec. 5.—UP—Peace between United Italy and the Catholic church was formally sealed today when King Victor Emanuel III. and Queen Elena visited the Vatican, kissing the papal ring, and exchanged gifts with the pontiff.

It was the first visit of an Italian monarch to the Holy See since the king's grandfather marched on Rome 39 years ago and overthrew the Pope's temporal power.

King Victor Emanuel, wearing the uniform of a field marshal and the queen, wearing a white dress and strings of famous pearls of the house of Savoy, drove from the Quirinal palace to the Vatican city in an automobile escorted by a squadron of bicycle police, and palace guardsmen.

Woman Hits Spouse With $10 Gold Piece

RENO, Nev., Dec. 4.—UP—"I wasn't so bad when my wife broke a mirror over my head, but when she flung a $10 gold piece at me and bruised my head," sued her for divorce.

The wife, Grover Swagert, complain when he filed suit against Dottie D. Swagert, alleging cruel and inhuman treatment.

The gold coin, he explained, was one he had given her as a present. Besides injuring his head, her treatment of his gift also hurt his feelings, he told the court.

FILM OF CITY AT RICHMOND THEATER

Officials of the city schools of Richmond were agreeably surprised at the first showing at the Richmond theater last night of the local film of the schools and points of interest of our city.

Inasmuch as there was not a foot of advertising in the 2000 feet and also at the wonderful detail shown of school activities.

The clearness of the pictures was amazing and many parents saw the inner workings of our truly great school system for the first time. Views of the machine and print shops at the high school were exceptionally clear as well as those of the home economics classes at the Roosevelt junior high. Lincoln gave us a well disciplined march for 200 feet of the reel and Peres made a great showing as well as the tots at Wilson and Stee. Pullman and Washington contributed their share as well as Grant and Nystrom.

Some other city views and the Pullman employees helped.

Some idea of police work as demonstrated by Capt. Jones and Chief Cox who showed us how to disarm a man while covered, and a few Ju Jitsu holds.

The film will be repeated tonight, and for the convenience of the public the doors will be open at 6:15.

Mules Balk At Electric Water

TURLOCK, Dec. 4.—UP—Three days in succession Harry R. Brock led his mules to water thrice daily on his farm here, but he couldn't make them drink. The third day they went completely on strike. They would neither drink nor work.

Brock investigated. He found the mules knew best.

Brock discovered the water in his trough was charged with electricity from a neighbor's motor.

The trouble remedied, the mules lifted the water boycott and called off the work strike.

He told authorities that he had gone to San Diego, after the escape, but had thought better of the act, and decided to come back to Martinez and surrender.

Richmond is said to have confessed the theft of ten cases of butter from the creamery.

PITT MAY PLAY ROSE CLASSIC

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 5.—UP—Athletic officials at the University of Southern California were in a "huddle" here tonight and it was expected that announcement of the Trojan choice of the Rose Bowl New Year's football game will be made Friday.

The players would like to have another crack at Notre Dame, but this was regarded as impossible as the undefeated Irish have hung up their cleats and Coach Knute Rockne plans to recuperate from the illness which bothered him all season.

Pittsburgh was believed to be the logical eastern representative although U. S. C. may go south and invite Tulane or Tennessee.

While fans in Los Angeles were mulling over the East-West game, Coach Howard Jones had his team out at hard practice in preparation for Carnegie Tech. Carnegie will appear in the Los Angeles coliseum on December 12 as the last opponent on U. S. C.'s regular schedule.

High Quintets To Meet Lowell Cagers Today

The second battle of the Richmond Union high school basketball season will be played tonight when the local high school varsity and B squads clash with the Lowell high school at the local high school gymnasium. The B contest will start the tourney at 7:45 o'clock.

Prize of action is expected by the fans tonight for both teams are recognized as grade A squads in the eastbay. The Richmond varsity is expected to show great improvement over its playing standard in the Crockett contest two weeks ago when the local varsity was defeated 14 to 12 by the strong John Sweet school. The local B team is confident of victory in tonight's clash, for they easily defeated the Crockett B cagers. The local light-weight C's have been showing steady improvement in practice since their game with Crockett, which they lost by a score of 10 to 4.

FARRELL IN GOLF FINAL

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 5.—UP—Johnny Farrell, the National Open golf champion, was the only survivor in the National Professional Golfers' association tournament today who had to go to the semi-final round.

In the other quarter-final matches of today, Al Watrous, of Detroit, defeated Al Espinosa, of Chicago, 2 up in 36 holes; Walter Hagen, New York, eliminated Tony Manero, 6 and 5; and Leo Dieck, the defending champion, beat Gene Sarazen, 3 and 2.

High have been saving no pains in an effort to bring the best loop squad up to their highest standard by the beginning of the Alameda County Athletic league in January.

PLANS STARTED FOR COLLEGE ICE LEAGUE

BERKELEY, Dec. 5.—Winter sports enthusiasts of northern California will have opportunity to see plenty of competition in ice hockey if plans now under discussion for the formation of a five-team league are carried to completion.

The league, if formed, will include California, St. Mary's and St. Ignace college teams, and club teams from the Athens club and the Olympic club, California and the two clubs already have organized teams, and St. Mary's and St. Ignace, it is understood, are seriously considering the establishment of ice hockey as a sport. E. P. "Slip" Madigan, head football coach at the Moraga institution, is reported to have given his enthusiastic support to the sport as a means of conditioning football players in the off-season, since hockey stresses alertness and speed.

No attempt will be made to formulate a schedule until definite word is received from St. Mary's and St. Ignace. Jack F. MacKenzie, assistant graduate manager of the Associated Students at the University of California said today. It is planned that all teams in the league will have three games with each of the other teams included. The league is to be known as the Amateur Hockey league of northern California, and all games are to be played under conference rules.

Ice hockey has been growing in popularity at the Berkeley institution since the organization of the first team last year. The 1930 team will compete in at least two events other than the competition within the proposed league, according to present plans. These events include the winter sports carnival at Yosemite valley, to be staged early in the year and the annual minor sports carnival at Los Angeles in early April when hockey teams of California U. C. I. A. and U. S. C. will meet on the rink. All local games are to be played either at the new Oakland ice rink, Fourteenth and Grove streets, or at Iceland, San Francisco.

Cubs Purchase New Pitcher

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Dec. 5.—UP—Acquisition of another high priced minor league star by the Chicago Cubs, the selection of Montreal as the site for the 1930 convention and the defeat of a proposed amendment to the minor league draft legislation featured the second day session of the National association meeting.

The Cubs' busiest of major league clubs at this minor league meeting, acquired their second high priced minor leaguer when they obtained Pitcher Lynn Nelson from the Kansas City American association club in exchange for third baseman Norman McMillan, a pitcher to be delivered before the opening of the 1930 season and a sum said to be $25,000.

The deal for Nelson was believed to involve more money than the Cubs expended yesterday in their transaction for Malcolm Moss, Louisville southpaw, who is said to have cost the National league champions in the neighborhood of $35,000.

Legion Convention Set For September

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind.—The dates for the national convention of the American Legion in Boston, Mass. were set by the national executive committee at its recent meeting here as Sept. 22 to 25, inclusive.

Iowa Seeks To Re-enter Big Ten

CHICAGO, Dec. 5.—(UP)—The University of Iowa will present its plea for reinstatement in the Big Ten Friday and tonight it was impossible to determine what action the Western conference officials will take.

The Iowa request will take the form of a long petition which sets out mainly that the Iowa house is in order now. When the faculty athletic committee suspended the Hawkeyes last year the Iowans virtually were told to "clean up" and present evidence of the clean-up at the next faculty meeting.

Government To Operate Fisheries

CARACAS, Venezuela, Dec. 4.—(UP)—Venezuela's pearl fisheries are hereafter to be operated by the government. With the close of a 2-year contract with one Salim Abouhamad, minister of the interior Cardenas announced that the farming-out system would be dropped, and direct exploitation tried out. The pearl-oyster beds are situated on Margarita Island, and their product has usually been shipped direct to London jewelers.

GARFINKLE CAGERS TAKE FIRST HALF OF LEAGUE

When Walt Gordon executed a perfect hole shot in the last 30 seconds of the fourth quarter, the chances of the Studebaker cagers to tie for the lead of the city loop league vanished into thin air last night. As a result of Gordon's shot, Garfinkle's defeated the Studebakers 23 to 22, thereby capturing the championship of the first round of the city league. The Santa Fe A squad defeated Furrer's 36 to 31 in a game of the same calibre. The Civic Center Tires of the B division of the league lost to Mammy's Place by a score of 20 to 15.

The Studebakers started the game with a fierce attack that netted them a small margin, which they barely maintained during the first three quarters. The Garfinkle boys bagged several fine shots that caused the scoreboard to read 22 to 21 in favor of the Studebakers in the last minute of play. Gordon then started the record crowd of spectators by dashing down into Studebaker territory to make the most significant goal of the first round of the city league. Santa Fe showed an excellent brand of passwork last night against the Furrer boys. Santa Fe managed to maintain a margin of several points throughout the game, despite the vigorous attacks of the Furrer squad. Mammy's Place maintained its league-leading pace last night against the Civic Center Tires. However, the outcome of the contest was doubtful until the last few minutes of the fourth quarter. Garfinkle's are now leading the A division of the league, having won all of its five games since the beginning of the season. The Studebakers are tied with Santa Fe for second ranking with three victories and two defeats. The Oleum Union Oil loop squad and Furrer's hold third place with two victories and three defeats each. Ben Malik's are at the foot of the league with no victories. The second round of the city league will start Monday night.

Garfinkle's and Union Oil will clash at 8 o'clock, and the Santa Fe A squad will tangle with Ben Malik's at 9 o'clock. The Mastercraft Roofers will meet the Santa Fe Indians of the B league at 7 o'clock.

School nurse says all girls should know this

Woodland, Cal.
Mar. 28, 1928.

Several months ago I strained my back. It was very painful and got worse every day. My general health was affected and I became so weak that I could scarcely walk.

I was recommended to take the Fong Wan herbs. After the first three weeks of the treatment I had gained seven pounds in weight. My health is now entirely restored, my back is well and I am strong again.

I take pleasure in endorsing the wonderful herbs of Fong Wan.

High Club To Present Yule Play Tonight

A capacity house is expected to witness "Long Ago in Judea," annual Christmas play to be presented tonight by the International club of the Richmond union high school at the high school auditorium. The cast of the play, and Dorothy Cox, director of the production, have all endeavored to make "Long Ago in Judea" the most polished stage offering ever presented by the International club.

A chorus of 60 voices will be one of the many elaborate features of the play, which portrays the beginnings of the Christian era. The first act takes place in the court of Herod, and the last act occurs in the stable in Bethlehem where Jesus was born. Beautiful scenery has been constructed by the art classes under the direction of Bernice Whiting and by the woodwork classes of William Neeley.

The cast of the play is: William McCloskey, first slave; Earl Cometta, second slave; Albert Schmitt, Herod; Clyde Bernhardt, Herod; Edward Villagran, first guard; Mervyn Chenoweth, second guard; Darius, Henry Luer; Marius, Jackson Cox; Three Wise Men, Paul Glazier, Ernest Peters, Warren

Buy White Ad Agency

H. C. BERNSTEIN, formerly of San Francisco, who has just announced the purchase of the Fred Curtiss White, nationally recognized advertising agency.

H. C. BERNSTEIN BUYS WHITE AGENCY

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 5.—An announcement of widespread importance in view of the fact that the interests he represents have national and even international distribution was made here today that Herbert C. Bernstein, formerly of San Francisco, as purchased the nationally recognized advertising agency of the late Fred Curtiss White.

The fact that Bernstein has acquired from the White estate the agency which White owned and operated for the last six years was considered especially interesting inasmuch as Bernstein and White had been personal friends for many years. They were associated in business prior to the establishment of White's own agency, it is stated.

Interviewed here today, Bernstein stated that he has disposed of his San Francisco business interests, and that he will devote full time to operating the new agency he has acquired in Los Angeles.

"I have no special plans to announce," he stated, "except that I wish to say the business will be conducted in general just as it was before White's untimely death. He not only had my personal friendship, but my sincere admiration and I believe that I could do no better than to follow his successful business policies. The agency, as White operated it, will be carried on."

Bernstein, veteran newspaper man before he entered the advertising business, was in the advertising department of the San Francisco Chronicle for 10 years prior to 1923, the last six years of that period acting as advertising manager.

He entered the advertising agency business in 1923 and became vice-president of the Lockwood-Shackelford company in charge of that organization's San Francisco offices. In 1928 he purchased that office and, merging it with an agency operated by Leon Livingston, formed the Bernstein-Livingston, Inc., agency. In taking over the Fred Curtiss White organization, Bernstein disposed of his San Francisco interests by selling his partnership to Livingston.

Bernstein is widely known here, especially because of the fact that in 1926 and 1927 he was president of the California Association of Advertising Agencies. He is a native of Illinois and served his "cub" experience as a newspaper reporter and later as an advertising solicitor on an Omaha daily, but he has been a resident of California since 1910.

Legion Urged To Maintain Member Quota

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 5.—Phil Dodson, national executive committee member of the American Legion for this department, is urging all Legion posts to make every effort to attain their full 1930 membership quota by Christmas. It is the word brought with him from the recent meeting of the National Executive Committee held in Indianapolis and is a request of the national commander, O. L. Bodenhamer, to every post.

"A full membership for 1930 is the finest Christmas gift that the members of the American Legion can present their disabled comrades," the Legion official said. "The greatest work in which the Legion is engaged today is the aid it extends to sick and disabled veterans. If this work is to be carried on effectively during the coming year, if the voice of the Legion is to be heard in its plea for justice for those who were wounded or had their health shattered by their service in the World War, then we must have a large enrollment, for there is where where our strength lies."

"It is highly essential that the Legion build up its membership before the first of the new year because we have before us one of the most important rehabilitation programs in our history. For the last year the Legion has been fighting to obtain adequate hospital facilities for disabled men, especially those who are suffering with mental disabilities caused by their war service. That fight will be carried to the floor of Congress in the coming year and with a united membership we will not fail to get more hospital beds for our sick and disabled buddies."

"The sooner the 1930 membership work is completed, the sooner will the Legion be able to start towards the accomplishment of other splendid objectives set for the year. If membership is permitted to drag along for several months the Legion will waste a great deal of energy. On the other hand if every post attains its membership quota by Christmas, we will be fully prepared to start to work on the year's program without delay."

"The American Legion program for 1930 is one that should interest every man who had the privilege of serving his country during the World War. In addition to its rehabilitation work, the Legion will continue with renewed vigor its child welfare activities, Americanism work, community service, its good citizenship program and will broaden and extend many other lines of Legion endeavor. Every veteran who carries a 1930 Legion card will have an individual part in the accomplishment of these objectives."

"There is no veteran who can afford to be without the Legion because the Legion is constantly working for his welfare and in the Legion he finds a way to continue to serve his country in peace as he did in war. Some of the benefits obtained by the Legion for all ex-service men include the adjusted Compensation law, the right to free government hospitalization, priority in civil service appointments and the privilege of taking out government life insurance at reduced premium rates. The man who is not now a member of his Legion should show his appreciation of what the Legion has done for him by wearing the Legion button of service."

Protect Your Furniture

MORTEMOTH KILLS MOTHS

The gas from Mortemoth crystals not only protects your furniture for a long time, but contact with it kills all moths, their eggs and their dangerous larvae in furniture which is already infested.

The proper method of using Mortemoth crystals is to tie them in small sacks, and to place these sacks down in the channel of the piece, as deeply as possible, behind the cushions, so that, upon expansion, the gas will spread and fill the spring units in the back and in the bottom of the piece.

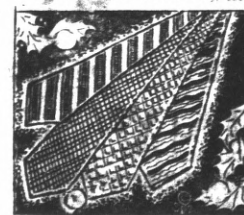

When the sacks are empty, fill them again.
